Essay Competition for International Students

To celebrate the 70th anniversary of the founding of the People's Republic of China, and to explore the perceptions and insights about today's China from the perspective of international students, alumni of Chinese universities, as well as students and scholars from overseas sinology institutes, Chinese Service Center for Scholarly Exchanges(CSCSE), authorized by the Ministry of Education of China, will hold the 3rd "My Beautiful Encounter with China" essay competition. With the hope of better understanding your experience in China and promoting cultural exchange among students, alumni, and scholars from different parts of the world, we invite you to participate in this meaningful and exciting event:

- Participants: International students living in China, alumni graduated from Chinese universities, students and scholars from overseas sinology institutes.
- Requirements:

(1). The essay should focus on your experience and memories in China, as well as your perceptions and insights about China. These themes include, but not limited to, changes and developments in society, economy, culture and your daily life in China.

(2). There is no restriction on the genre. The essay is suggested to be written in Chinese and the length should be around 1000

Chinese characters.

(3). You are encouraged to send us electronic copies of photos reflecting your life in China and/or the changes that took place in China during your time here or since you left, and attach them to the essay. Please provide a brief Chinese description about the photos.

- Deadline: July 15, 2019. Please send your essay to essay@istudyinchina.org before the deadline with your name, nationality, current employer or school, Chinese university you graduated from (if applicable), contact information (email and cell phone number) and one electronic photo (not formal portrait) in the email.
- Rewards: All submitted essay will be reviewed by a professional panel. Outstanding essays will be published as a book, and some of them maybe published in newspapers or magazines. Authors of the first-, second-, and third prized essays will receive monetary rewards.

Looking forward to seeing your work!
